Research Study: Attendance Management in Educational Institutions

Institution: [Your University/Department]

Project Team: [Team Names]

Date: [Date]

Purpose of the Study

We are students conducting research as part of a Design Thinking project. The goal of this study is to better understand how class attendance is currently tracked and managed, and to identify challenges faced by students, lecturers, and administrative staff.

What Participation Involves

If you agree to participate, you will be asked to take part in a brief interview or observation session lasting approximately 20–30 minutes. You may be asked questions about your experiences with attendance tracking, your routines, and any frustrations or suggestions you may have.

Voluntary Participation

Your participation in this study is entirely voluntary. You may:

- Decline to answer any question at any time
 - Withdraw from the study at any point without consequence
 - Ask for your data to be excluded after the session

Anonymity and Confidentiality

- Your name will not be used in any reports or presentations unless you explicitly give permission.
 - Participants will be referred to using general roles (e.g., "Lecturer A", "Student B").
 - Any notes, transcripts, or recordings will be stored securely and accessed only by the project team.
 - Data will be used solely for academic purposes within this project and will not be shared externally.

Data Usage

Information gathered will be used to:

- Build empathy maps and user personas
- Identify key insights and pain points
- Inform the definition of a design challenge

Data will not be used for any commercial purpose, published without consent, or shared with institutional authorities in a way that could identify you.
